STUDENT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT:

Graduate students are expected to maintain a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA during their graduate career. Failure to do so will automatically result in students being placed on academic probation.

Students will be permitted a maximum of two (2) semesters on academic probation for the entirety of their graduate program. These semesters do not have to be sequential in order to count towards the maximum limit.

Failure to achieve a 3.0 cumulative GPA by the end of the second probationary semester, or falling below a 3.0 for a third semester, will result in permanent disqualification from NYU Tandon School of Engineering. Disqualified students will not be considered for readmission.

Students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above by the end of the semester, exclusive of any Incomplete grades, Temporary (S/U) grades, or course withdrawals.

I hereby acknowledge that I understand the ramifications of being placed on my first semester of academic probation (YA1) in _____ . I have met with my adviser to address my GPA deficiency.
